For Immediate Release

Home Invasion in Mill Creek.

MILL CREEK, WA. – On Friday, Jan 6, at 9:55 p.m., the Mill Creek Police Department (MCPD) responded to a robbery in the 4100 block of 134th Pl. SE, Mill Creek. Several units from the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office (SCSO) and Lynnwood Police Department (LPD), including a K9 unit, assisted Mill Creek Officers.

The reporting party stated they were alone when three males wearing face masks and all-black clothing forced entry into their residence. The subjects took money and valuables and then left. The reporting party sustained minor injuries that did not require medical attention.

The suspects were not located and the investigation is ongoing.
